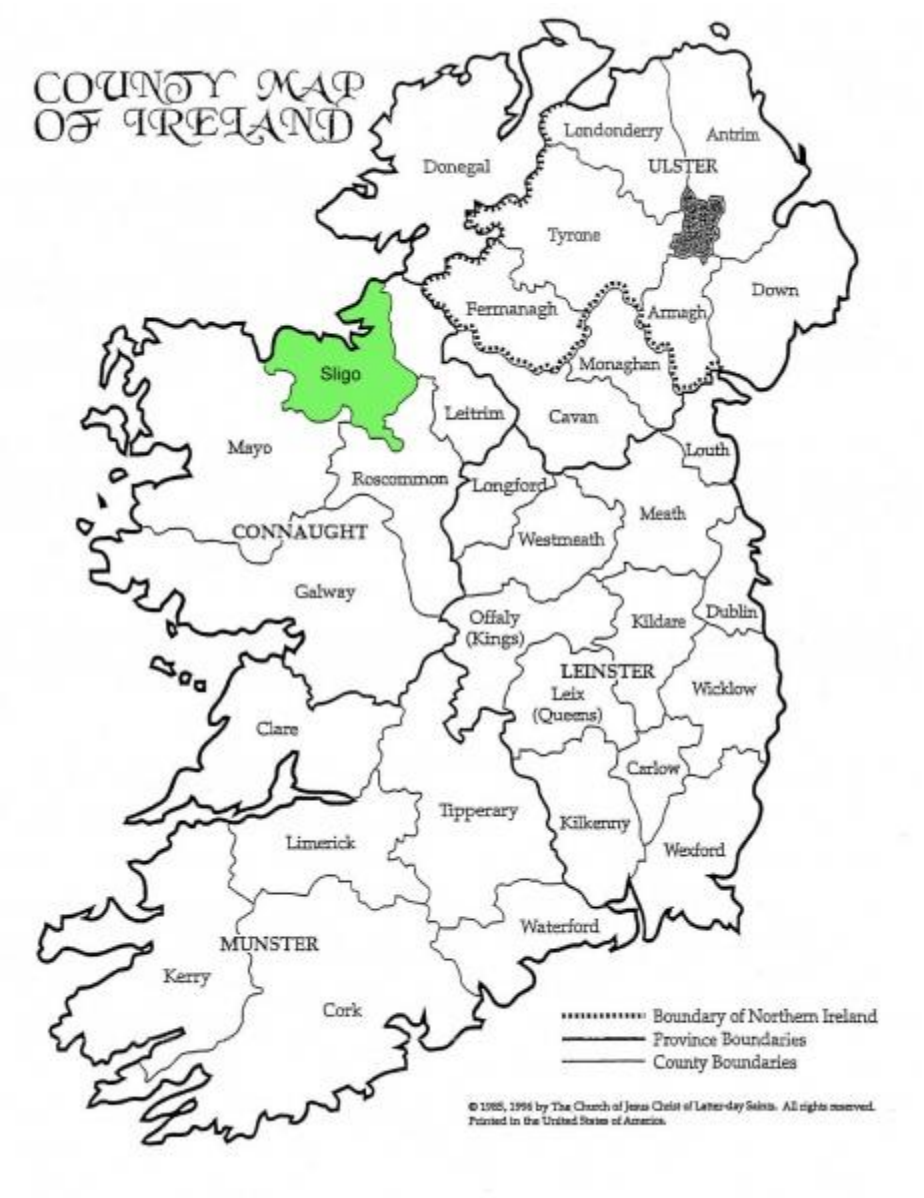
The Dempsey Family of Ireland

DNA matches suggest the Dempsey family was from County Sligo in Ireland.



First Generation

1. ____ DEMPSEY was born in Ireland, possibly in County Sligo. DNA matches to Cecily Agnes Dempsey suggest this possibility. Cecily was born in Bradford,

Yorkshire West Riding, England, about 1880.[1] She was the daughter of Matthew Dempsey and Marguarite Murphy.[2] Matthew was born in County Sligo about 1845.[3] If Matthew Dempsey is related to ____ Dempsey then ____ Dempsey's children may also be from County Sligo.

Children of ____Dempsey:

2 i. PATRICK DEMPSEY, born in Ireland, possibly in County Sligo, circa 1830 to 1833; married Mary Kenny in Washington, D.C., on 30 August 1852; died sometime after he was hit by a train in Leavenworth, Leavenworth County, Kansas, on 28 December 1898.

3 ii. JAMES DEMPSEY, born in Ireland in January 1830; married Hanorah Flynn in 1862; died in Washington, D.C., on 4 March 1901.

Second Generation

2. PATRICK DEMPSEY was born in Ireland, possibly in County Sligo, circa 1830 to 1833.[4] He died sometime after he was hit by a train in Leavenworth, Leavenworth County, Kansas, on 28 December 1898.[5] He was buried in Saint John's Cemetery in Kansas City, Wyandotte County, Kansas.[6]

Patrick married MARY KENNEY in Washington, D.C., on 30 August 1852.[7] Mary, the daughter of James Kenney and Bridget Irvine, was born in Ireland in May 1830.[8] She died in Kansas City, Kansas, on 31 October 1903 and was buried in Mount Calvary Cemetery in Kansas City, Kansas.[9]

Patrick worked as a stone mason in 1860 when he lived in in Covington, Alleghany County, Virginia.[10] In 1870 when he lived in Jeffersonville, Clark
